INT. BUILDING STAIRCASE

COBALT ran up the stairs in a drunken state.

He saw the dark figure on the edge. He advanced closer.

COBALT

Stop! Or I'll shoot!

He tightened his grip on his revolver.

The police helicopter arrived beaming lights in between the two buildings.

Cobalt protected his eye from the bright light and let out a single shot.

Deacon immediately put his left hand in his pocket and stood up facing Cobalt. He saw Cobalt's face, exactly like his own.

DEACON

Cobalt!

Cobalt advance forward but the bullet already on ricochet.

Deacon with a nose bleed look around the helicopter in mid flight rotators hanging, came to a halt. All of a sudden everything stood still.

The only sound are their heartbeats. Cobalt was frozen at a firing position. He picked up the velvet cloth he dropped on the floor and wipe his nose bleed.

He look at the bullet but its too hard he let it drop to. Blood dripping from his nose. He was about to leap but went back and to get Deacons wallet. He look inside. He has got more condoms in his wallet than a dollar bill and put the wallet back and took the leap. Landed on the window ledge.

The Stirling family walking at the castle grounds. The twins 7 of age Deacon Green and Cobalt Blue, ran towards the big pond and dove in with their clothes on but left their shoes and socks on the embankment.

The wins were playing in the water when:

EMMA

You are not suppose to do that! Get out now or I will get the warden.

Cobalt took his shirt off, and toss to Emma.

Emma shocked to see the mucky water on her freshly ironed white linen dress.

EMMA (CONT'D)

How awful! I will definitely get the warden.

As she walks away they were mooning Emma but she pretended not to see and stormed off.

WARDEN

The behavior of your children I'm afraid was not a good example as a result please leave the ground immediately and never to come back until your boys can behave in proper manner.

Sharon was busy helping the boys change in the yard while talking to the warden.

SHARON

I am terribly sorry we just arrived here only a few days ago, and the boys having not seen so many places of such beauty like this. So please we do apologize. Perhaps we could set up a donation as to compensate for the disturbance.

WARDEN

Oh, ty madam but surely, that's not necessary. But it would help immensely. Aren't the Koi Carps beautiful.

James come into the view and face the twin.
